PASTORAL LETTER

Sisters and Brothers,

The first Lord's Day in November is the time when, in a formal way, we pause to remember persons who departed this life during the preceding twelve months. In two congregations in our Circuit today, time is being set aside in worship to remember those for whom thanksgiving services would have taken place. At the same time, we lovingly remember the bereaved families for whom we have a duty to pray for their ongoing welfare and faithfulness before God.

The Christian faith should make us sensitive to the fact that the passing of a loved one constitutes an occasion for lending support to those who are grieving. We are doing this by our presence and participation in today's memorial services. However, even before and after today, we must give the assurance to the families, that they are prayerfully remembered in their time of grief.

Through this letter, may I remind us that when members who have shared earthly fellowship with us pass on to the life hereafter, their families will be convinced about our serious commitment to their support through our contacting them and through our attendance at the funeral. The pastor should not have to ask beforehand if stewards, ushers, choir members and others will be present at a member's funeral. Unless work commitments or other duties prevent it, we should be there, alongside the family, to pay our last respects to one who has left the church militant on earth for membership within the church triumphant in heaven.

All I am asking is for us to remember that we have a caring ministry to exercise. It cannot be done in a vacuum, but it must be expressed in simple practical ways. Jesus Christ was ever willing to treat others as a top priority, for as the Son of God, he came not to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. May God give to each one of us a Christlike sensitivity that will help us to determine the things we ought to do, in times of grief as well as on other significant occasions, that will make a difference as we live on the face of the earth.

Yours in Christ,

Rev. Dr George Mulrain
